COLLEGE ALMA MATER

We honor faith that seeks life whole,
Whose hearts and minds unite in soul,
Whose freedom teaches self-control,
A gift which we inherit.

Confirm in these unrivaled years
Of learning, laughter, and of tears
Of yearning, hope amid our fears,
We praise thee for thy spirit.

Wesleyan, our Alma Mater,
Now we join with voices raised;
May thy name be blessed in singing,
And by grateful lives be praised.

Plans Made For Student Activity Building

Monday, April 18, 1988 was a day that marked the beginning of something new here on campus. A groundbreaking ceremony was held on this day for a new Student Activity Building.

The construction of the new building was approved by Wesleyan's Board of Trustees at its February 19 meeting following several months of research and discussion by the board's Student Life Committee, Student Government Association members, and members of the administration.

The building is supposed to be a 7000 square foot structure divided into a large multi purpose room, eleven offices, a conference room, recreation room, TV room, and a kitchen.

GARNER INAUGURATED AS

Dr. Leslie H. Garner Jr. is the third President of North Carolina Wesleyan College. His inauguration on April 6th, capped two days of celebration and discussion of the future development of Eastern North Carolina, with a number of state and business leaders participating.

In his Inaugural address he pledged the college's resources to prepare Eastern North Carolina for a prosperous future and to preserve the region's native culture. "We are in the midst of the most profound economic transition of this century," Garner said, "Yet all of us should realize that change can be positive. We can still hope for expanded economic opportunity for our citizens, and we still dream of the day when our cultural diversity can be a cause for celebration . . ."

About 1,000 guests and delegates from other colleges attended the event, which was held on the front lawn of the Braswell Administration Building on the Wesleyan campus. Judge Phil Carlton, chairman of Wesleyan's Board of Trustees, presided over the inauguration ceremony.

NCWC'S THIRD PRESIDENT

Earlier in the day about 500 people attended a symposium titled "Eastern North Carolina in a Global Economy," where several business and community leaders discussed the prospects of Eastern North Carolina in the emerging global economy. Participating in the symposium were keynote speaker D. Calloway, chairman and CEO of PepsiCo, Inc., former N.C. Governor James B. Hunt, Jr., and William C. Friday, president emeritus of the UNC system and President of the William R. Kenan Jr. Fund.

On April 5th, about 1,000 people attended a musical revue celebrating the history of the college. This event was performed by alumni, students, and members of the Rocky Mount community. The inaugural events reaffirmed the college's commitment to its educational mission and larger role in the community and region.

Dr. Finney Named Jefferson-Pilot Professor of the Year

Dr. Kenneth V. Finney, chairman and associate professor of history at North Carolina Wesleyan College, has been named the Jefferson-Pilot Professor for 1988.

At a reception honoring Finney, Wesleyan President Dr. Leslie H. Garner Jr. said, "This award is well-deserved. Ken has proven himself as a teacher, a scholar, and a colleague who is vitally interested in promoting the welfare of this institution. The Jefferson-Pilot Professorship was created to recognize those special attributes.

As part of the Professorship, Finney will receive a grant and a personal computer, with appropriate software, provided by the college.

Finney joined the Wesleyan faculty in 1973. He is a specialist in Latin American history and much of his scholarly work combines his interest in Latin America and economic and technological development.

The Jefferson-Pilot Professorship is an endowed program made possible by the Jefferson-Pilot Corp. The Professorship at Wesleyan was established in 1982. Criteria for the appointment include teaching excellence, scholarship, and commitment to Wesleyan.

ORGANIZED CHAOS

FALL — (HOM) ECO-ME ÑG

SPRING — (SPR) ING-FLÑG

One of the biggest crowd pleasing activities during the Homecoming Festivities was the Airband or Lip Sync Contest. The contest was performed before a SRO (standing room only) audience in the cafeteria! During the contest, the audience was treated to performances by notable entertainers, such as L.L. Cool J, The Supremes, Salt and Pepa, Mary Jane Girls, Erik B. and Rakim, and Appolonia Six. In all, there were approximately sixteen performances.

The audience, when not being entertained by the contestants, were entertained by the MC of the night, Debbie Ward.

Anthony Rice, Sybil Banford, and David Banford were the judges for the evening. The contestants were judged on their appearance, originality, and on lip sync. They received one to ten points in each category with a maximum score of thirty points. Cash prizes of $100 for first place, $50 for second place, and $25 for third place were awarded to the top acts.

Tamara Oates, posing as Jody Watley, was the first place finisher. Kimberly Williams, posing as Anita Baker, was the $25 winner. The second place finishers were the Girls from North, posing as the Beach Boys and Fat Boys.

The festivities opened with the madness of Midnight Madness. During Midnight Madness, the participants were divided into teams of four and sent on a campus wide scavenger hunt. The object of the activity was to find the most objects. The participating teams had a great time. Two Nash Hall teams walked off as the top two finishers.

The activity that appealed to the campus' appetites was the Pizza Eating Contest. The contest consisted of three different heats with a male and female category. The participants were not allowed to eat the pizza with their hands. The judges for this event were employees of Pizza Hut. Pizza Hut also donated the prizes for this event. The overall male/female champion pizza eater was the team of Joannette "Moose" Benjamin, Lisa Fry, Maxine Dyer, and Charlene Gentile.

The third annual Wesleyan Homecoming Parade did not have the year's best weather. It was a cool misty Saturday morning. However, even the weather couldn't delay the parade. The parade was populated by approximately fifteen entries for a once-over circuit of the campus. The entrants ranged from the decorated car floats of organizations ... to ... the Homecoming Court ... to ... a special alumni float ... to ... President Garner.

While the majority of the audience partied to the music of Mainstream in the VFW Club during the Homecoming Dance, a specific group of young ladies, were anticipating the arrival of the evening's climax. The climax occurred at approximately 10:45 pm, when Dr. Garner announced the 1987 North Carolina Wesleyan Homecoming Queen, Diane Ciasca.

It all started last year with a phone call on Nov. 1, 1986 and a commitment on Nov. 2.

A phone call from head coach Tony Ferrell at 9 p.m. to Kenny Bulkin's room saying the 1986 North Carolina Wesleyan Men's Soccer Team would not be getting a bid to participate in the Division III National Tournament led to a commitment the next day by 19 male Wesleyan student/athletes to win the Dixie Conference, get an automatic bid into the National Tournament, and not sit by the telephone on Nov. 1, 1987.

Thus began the most successful season of men's soccer history at North Carolina Wesleyan College. The 1987 Battling Bishop soccer team won four tournaments; had the team's best ever record at 17-2-2; had the team's highest rankings ever, third in Division III nationally and first in the South; scored the most goals in a season, with 76; hosted the first round of the Southern Regionals in the NCAA National Soccer Tournament; and won the 1987 Dixie Conference championship.

North Carolina Wesleyan women's basketball team exceeded all expectations for this year's all underclassmen team by posting a 15-10 record overall and a 8-6 mark in the conference.

The Lady Bishops were paced throughout the year by freshman sensation Joannette Benjamin, as she averaged 20.2 points per game and 7.2 rebounds per game. Benjamin was also named first team All-Dixie Conference. Sharon McLeod and Charlene Pearson received honorable mention for the All-Dixie team.

Head coach Laura Ferrell's closing comments on the season were, "... To finish 15-10 with a team of underclassmen was really a major accomplishment this year and I'm really proud of our women."

Under first year head coach Corky Maynor, North Carolina Wesleyan's tennis team suffered through a 1-14 overall record this season.

Wesleyan's lone victory came against conference foe Greensboro with an 8-1 tally.

Jim Lavender was one of the bright spots on the team as he won five matches at the number one singles position.

McCLAIN RETURNS TO WESLEYAN

Jetanna "Jet" McClain returns to Wesleyan as Volleyball Coach, Cheerleader Advisor, and Softball Coach. Returns?!? Yes, returns . . . because just in case some of you don't know, Jet is an alumnus of Wesleyan.

During her two years here, a transfer from Louisburg College, Jet earned every athletic award imaginable; such as, All-American Honors, two-time NCWC Outstanding Female Athlete, two-time team MVP, and the list continues.

And as the year has progressed it has become more and more apparent that Jet's athletic knowledge is not confined to her playing ability, because she has in her first season here led the volleyball team and softball team to a great season. The Dixie Conference recognized this and named her Dixie Conference Coach of the Year.

Welcome back Jet!!!!

For the seventh time in eight years, the Battling Bishops at North Carolina Wesleyan College wrapped up the Dixie Conference Baseball title this year losing just one game in league play. Wesleyan was 20-5-1, posting an 11-1 record against Dixie opponents.

The season was pleasantly satisfying to Coach Mike Fox, who fielded a team of only three seniors this year. In six years at Wesleyan, Fox has recorded 221 wins with only 48 losses and three ties (.817%).

It was expected to be an average year for the women's softball team at Wesleyan College this spring; but the season ended in jubilation as the Lady Bishops earned a share of the Dixie Conference title in April.

Behind first year Coach Jetanna McClain, Wesleyan finished with a 20-11 record, 11-3 in conference play to tie Virginia Wesleyan for first place. Three players were named to the All-Conference First Team: third baseman Katie Larkin (Sr./Manlius, NY); pitcher Sharon Fitzpatrick (Sr./Carlstadt, NJ); and outfielder Kim Breeden (So./Laurinburg, NC). Breeden was also named to the All-Tournament Team in the conference tournament.

NORTH CAROLINA WESLEYAN

Leslie Holland Garner, Jr., the third President of North Carolina Wesleyan College, is a native of Greenville and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He holds a master's degree and Ph.D. in public policy from Harvard University.

After graduate school, Dr. Garner spent two and a half years in Vienna as the Special Assistant to the Director of the International Institute of Applied Systems Analysis. Returning to North Carolina he joined the faculty at UNC-Chapel Hill where he was Foundation Director of the Government Executives Institute, a program for senior state government officials. He developed a program in "Managing the Arts" and was co-director of the University Management Development Program and director of the Young Executives Institute.

Dr. Garner sees the mission of the liberal arts as empowering individuals and affirming community through learning. He believes that at no time has this mission been as important as it is today. The transition of the world into a global economy demands knowledge, broad cultural awareness and creativity to ensure the economic survival of individuals and communities. Dr. Garner believes that the College must position itself to respond to these challenges.

Dr. Garner and his wife, Katrina, who was a founding partner of the Catering Company of Chapel Hill, have two sons, Brantley, age 4 and William, age 2.

SPECIAL NOTE:

The 1987-88 Dissenter has been a long time coming. For reasons still unclear, some 5 pages were found to be missing over the summer of 1988. Beginning that fall, a postal tracer was put on the missing pages. Phone calls were made to the previous advisor. Nothing turned up. Determining exactly what was missing became a crucial factor, and with few remaining Dissenter staff members at Wesleyan, a tough one. The only concrete determination that could be made was that the student photographs were missing. The photographer was contacted and proofs re-ordered. Meanwhile, hopes for the 1988-89 Dissenter were dim. A lack of interest in producing the book coupled with the burden of reproducing the previous year's book, proved to be too much. After a vote of the SGA the 1988-89 contract with Delmar was breeched. The cost of materials supplied and services rendered was absorbed by the SGA. Still this book needed to be reproduced. After working with five Delmar field representatives, I was finally able to finish photo layouts. At this writing some 24 pages are still missing. I do not know if this book will ever be produced, but I can say great effort was taken to deliver this book to the Wesleyan students.

The 1987-88 Dissenter was paid for by student fees, and every student enrolled during that academic year has the right to a copy. Regardless of whether or not a book is ever produced, all the money set aside has been used in trying to put forth this book. No refunds will be available.

By a vote of the student body in the fall of 1988, the cost of the 1988-89 Dissenter, as well as future books, would be paid by each student on a per copy basis — not as a part of an activity fee. All the money that had been set aside for the 88/89 book at that time was rebudgeted through the SGA for activities.

I would like to express special thanks to James Hunter, Pam Derrick, Amy Stang, Teresa Harris, Pam Gourley, and Saambo Minah.

Respectfully Submitted
Tracy A. Sutton
